

This summer will be another one for the youth philanthropy history books thanks to all of YOU! :)

- Foundation Center's YouthGiving.org launched and now has over $15 million in youth-led grants and so much more accessible online 24/7!
- Youth Philanthropy Connect's International conference is the largest and most diverse and robust yet!
- We are celebrating 5 years since Youth Philanthropy Connect was dreamed up by youth philanthropists!

As our youth head back to school (see grant opportunities below!), YPC will be heading into a strategic planning process for how to best support the growing youth philanthropy movement. Read on for the help we need from you and upcoming training opportunities!

Best wishes for a terrific school year and Fall!
-Team YPC

Share your Insights to Form YPC's Next Steps!

As YPC celebrates its fifth anniversary, it has grown in marvelous ways! We are excited and thinking towards the future to understand how we can best support the youth philanthropy movement.

Please share your advice to inform YPC's future through this survey by Friday, September 9th! Youth and adults alike are encouraged to contribute!

Meet Two Youth Philanthropists: Leadership Team Members Alexis Elder & Ashley Deutser

Meet our two Houston, Texas based members of the YPC leadership team- Ashley (left) and Alexis (right)!

Ashley comes to YPC from the Greater Houston Community Foundation. She is dedicated to empowering youth. Alexis helped to develop a family giving circle in Houston, even though the youth philanthropy program is fairly new to the area. Ashley's future involves working with nonprofits- an aspect of her life she can't imagine living without. Check out Ashley's full bio here.

Alexis, who is also from the Greater Houston Community Foundation, is passionate about service work. She is involved in a few different service-based student organizations on campus, including a co-ed service fraternity for which she serves on the service committee. Alexis's future involves effective education reform. Check out Alexis's full bio here.

Thank You YPC Fellows, Danielle and Maggie!

We want to thank Maggie and Danielle for the amazing joy and impact they have brought to YPC throughout the year—from writing features of our youth, facilitating our awesome leadership team, running our YPC Giving Circle process, and traveling from Boston to Seattle to NYC to Anaheim!

Our deep thanks and best wishes for your continued journeys as inspiring changemakers!

We have changed our fellowship format for the 2016-2017 school year--stay tuned to hear about our new fellows in the September newsletter.

Welcome Brea to the Team YPC!

A current Master's student at Indiana University's Lilly Family School of Philanthropy, we're excited to welcome Brea Reimer to our team as a Graduate Assistant taking on some of the day-to-day work for YPC. Brea is an alumna of Noble County Community Foundation's P.U.L.S.E. & Dekko Foundation's youth philanthropy leadership board, phish (Philanthropy Ideas Strategy Heart). ## Registration for RG's Annual Retreat is Open

Resource Generation is a group dedicated to organizing young people with wealth and class privilege to become leaders committed to making the distribution of wealth, land, and power more equitable for everyone.

This conference will focus on moving toward a collective action for young people with wealth and their partners. Making Money Make Change is a unique opportunity to learn, grow, and build a community needed to cause systematic shifts in the right direction. This conference is targeted at those ages 18-35.

When: November 17th - 20th, 2016
