

Announcing Post-National Forum Gathering on Youth Philanthropy May 10th in Boston!

Youth Philanthropy Connect is proud to announce that we are co-hosting our very first regional gathering on youth philanthropy with the National Center for Family Philanthropy and the Boston Foundation on May 10th in Boston, after NCFP's National Forum on Family Philanthropy!

If you are engaging youth ages 8-21 in the work of your foundation or would you like to, bring along the youth of your family or foundation for this post-National Forum Gathering on Saturday, May 10 from 9:00 a.m.-2:00 p.m. held at The Boston Foundation's offices (pictured left).

meet one another, share models of youth philanthropy, learn together, and explore national promising practices for engaging youth in philanthropy.

It is our hope that at least one youth be present to represent each foundation attending. You do not have to have attended the National Forum on Family Philanthropy to participate. Registration is limited and will be available on a first come, first serve basis.

More details to come as the schedule is finalized.

This interactive session will highlight youth philanthropy work happening in the Boston area, as well as provide a unique opportunity for foundations and youth in attendance to Call for Sessions for YPC 2014 Due January 24th!

We are currently accepting session proposals for YPC's 2014 conference for youth philanthropists (ages 8-21) and the adults who support them! All proposals are due January 24th! This year's conference theme is Weaving a Web of Support so along with sessions on basics in philanthropy, we will also focus on helping youth philanthropists develop personal networks to benefit their foundations, and ultimately the causes they care about.

While participants are both youth ages 8 to 21 and the adults that support them, all ages are invited to speak and facilitate sessions. Please consider submitting a proposal! Additionally, please forward this announcement to any other networks, organizations, or individuals that you think may be interested.

All Proposals Due: Friday, January 24, 2014

Who Should Apply:

- Past presenters
- YPC supporting foundations, partners, and sponsors
- Facilitators of youth philanthropy programs or experiences that feel equipped to offer relevant and unique content
- Organizations engaging or training youth in social change
- Anyone committed to engaging young people involved in foundations and social change
- Youth and teams of youth and/or an adult are encouraged to apply!

Here are examples of past conference sessions: - Introduction to Foundations and Grantmaking - "It's an Online World" Tech & Philanthropy for Generation Y and Generation Z - Careers in Nonprofit and Philanthropy - Fundraising and Proposals: How to Read and Write Grants - Formally Engaging Alumni and Youth in Your NPO: It's Smarter and Easier Than You Think!
