

Happy Halloween!

Our year-long, road trip has come to a successful close yet YPC still has many new and exciting announcements left to share this year! Read more below...and stay tuned for the theme of and the call for proposals for our 2016 International Conference!

*See you in Massachusetts!
-Team YPC*

Thank you, Northwest!

On Saturday, October 17th, the youth philanthropists of the Northwest challenged themselves to be more equitable grantmakers while networking, learning side by side, determining grant recipients, and engaging with prominent leaders in the philanthropic field. Read more about the Seattle program here and see more photos from the event here. We were thrilled to partner with The Seattle Foundation to offer this day-long Northwest gathering as a post-conference to the National Forum on Family Philanthropy. Youth as young as age 7 were represented at the last stop of YPC's year-long road trip, from nonprofits, community foundations, and family foundations.

PLAYing a big ROLE

This brand new, youth-friendly tool played a huge role at the Northwest conference allowing participants to not only get to know each other, but to get to know themselves a bit better as well. YPC partnered with 21/64 to develop roleplay, an interactive way to gain awareness about how you see yourself, and about how you seeing the act of giving. Learn more & order your own roleplay kit here!

2016 Contest is now available!

Generous U is a contest that helps promote social justice philanthropy and awards a $10,000 Prize (and a runner-up prize) to college students who propose ways of increasing philanthropy on their campus. The Generous U contest spotlights student giving and its positive impact.

Eligible student groups should submit an Intent to Apply and then prepare a proposal and short video, demonstrating how your group increases philanthropy or philanthropic values on your campus.

Applications are due by March 11. Click here to learn more.
