Happy Autumn!

The last stop on our road trip is quickly approaching! Read on to find more information about the Northwest Conference and how to register.

A new school year means a new YPC team. Our incoming fellows and leadership team members will be getting hands-on experience in the philanthropic field, and we cannot wait to see what they accomplish.

See you in Seattle!

INVITE YOU TO

YOUTH PHILANTHROPY

ON THE ROAD

NORTHWEST CONFERENCE * SEATTLE, WA

10.17.15

This day-long multi-generational conference will be a chance for youth, families, and trusted advisors from the Northwest region to learn from each other about youth in philanthropy. The program is geared toward families with children/grandchildren ages 8 - 24 and youth philanthropy programs serving students in middle school, high school, or college and their adult advisors.

YOUTH PHILANTHROPY CONNECT

The Seattle Foundation

NATIONAL CONFERENCE FOR FAMILY PHILANTHROPY

Thank you to Foundant Technologies for sponsoring the Youth Giving Circle.

We are thrilled to partner with The Seattle Foundation to offer this day-long Northwest gathering as a post-conference to the National Forum on Family Philanthropy. With sessions geared toward youth philanthropists aged between 8 and 24, and the adults who guide them, who are engaged in or excited to learn about grant-making, attendees will be able to connect with their peers and work collaboratively in a unique learning environment.

Youth 101 Session- Passion, Purpose, & Impact: How to Put it all Together

Learn how to connect your values and passions to a successful giving strategy with Peter Drury and Whitney Webb from Independent Means. By leading activities and brainstorms that focus on a variety of ways to make a difference in the world, Peter and Whitney will teach you how to understand the ins and outs of philanthropy, and, more importantly, how it fits into your life and the world around you.

Peter Drury is President of Independent Means, Inc., and is a strategic leader with a richly complementary background in family counseling, financial education, business leadership, and modern philanthropy. Prior to Independent Means, Peter was the Director of Strategy for Splash, a quickly scaling social enterprise focused on "clean water for kids" in Asia and Africa. He is a university instructor in philanthropy and leadership at the University of Washington and Seattle University and is comfortable holding the deep conversations that impact our relationship with money, like trust, security, fear, entrepreneurship, spirituality, responsibility, and legacy.

Whitney Webb is the Director of Operations, as well as a Head Trainer and co-Director of Camp Start-Up. Whitney is a board member and volunteer business mentor at Youth Interactive, a non-profit teen center in Santa Barbara working to promote leadership and entrepreneurial skills. Prior to Independent Means, Whitney was a Kiva Fellow in Kigali, Rwanda where she worked to strengthen partnerships and increase the reach of microfinance, through employee trainings and industry research.
